

Londoners Wrothy Over Tramway Fare

(Correspondence Associated Press) LONDON, June 10.—The question of the increase in the tramway fares, and also those of the motor omnibuses, has caused widespread discontent here lately. In some instances the fares in London and the suburban districts have been raised more than 100 per cent over those charged in pre-war days. The result has been that public opinion has been worked up to such an extent that nearly every London member of parliament is asking questions on the subject of the house of commons and deputations are frequently seeking interviews with the London county council and the omnibus companies' council.

The first step toward the increase is the abolition of the half-penny fare and the reduction of a distance which could be traveled for the penny fare. The tramways declare that the increase is necessary to meet the increased expenses which have occurred since war-time demands for shorter routes and more pay. The public declares that the additional cost of making is made up in the extra fares taken since hostilities ended.

An interesting sidelight on this is revealed by the amounts of the weekly "corporation tramways" in the east largest city in London. The fare that has just passed has proved a record for the city. Prior to the war the fares were the cheapest in the country and have since been maintained as before. The revenue or fares for the year 1918-19 totaled £1,500,000, an increase of £125,000 over the year 1917-18. The number of passengers carried increased by over 25,000,000. It is stated in the report that 60 per cent of the increase came from the half-penny fares.

OLD TIME BRAVE PASSING AWAY

(By Associated Press) POCAHELLO, Ida., July 11.—Port Fall, within ten miles of Pocahello, is the trading post for three tribes of Indians, Bannocks, Lemhis and Shoshones. There are 2500 of the three tribes on the tract, which embraces many thousands of acres, not all cultivated. Some live along the bottoms in wickiups and modern tents and follow up the old system of the "blanket" Indians. Others cultivate.

Every Saturday they appear at the historic trading post where they are given their allotment under the supervision of Major H. H. Miller, superintendent of the post. In early June Captain Bonneville stopped at the site for several days, and General Custer and Fremont went through this way.

Today a different condition exists, and while some of the older tribesmen live in the primitive way, the major portion furnish supplies along the river. Some are active stock men and farmers, and some are gamblers. One of the braves who recently left his heirs $50,000. He had residence property close to the post, owned farm land, and knew the details of a bank account. He was a Bannock Indian.

SPECIAL MEDAL FOR AVIATOR

(Correspondence Associated Press) ROME, June 12.—Dora Ohlfsen, designer of the Anzac medal, has produced in her Rome studio, a new medal dedicated to the American air force. The face side consists of the head of an American aviator, the medal for which had served in the American air force operating on Italy's front, surrounded by an allegorical design symbolical of America's will and power.

The reverse side of the medal is symbolical of the task America accomplished in transporting her fighting forces across the seas and bearing an inscription taken from President Wilson's message to congress which reads: "There is therefore but one response possible for us: Force, force to the utmost; force, without limit or limit, the righteous and triumphant force which shall make right the law of the world, and cast every selfish dominion down in the dust."

Miss Ohlfsen is an Australian.

(Correspondence Associated Press) LONDON, June 17.—Mosquitoes, or midges as they are called here, are proving a pest this summer in various parts of England. As a rule they are harmless insects in this country, but Miss Mary Ashley of Seven Kings aged 21 years, was so severely poisoned after being stung on the nose by a mosquito that she died four days later.

COMMERCIAL AIR SERVICE IN ITALY

(Correspondence Associated Press)

ROME, June 17.—American tourists may hereafter visit Roman ruins—the Coliseum, Forum, Pantheon, Caracalla baths and the basilica of Constantine, St. Peter's and other Rome gems, hereafter, not in antiquated horse-drawn carriages, but in airships. The Italian navy has established a commercial dirigible service for visiting Rome and its environs from the air. The venture has met with complete success for daily the aircraft are filled to capacity.

The correspondent of The Associated Press viewed Rome from the Italian navy's dirigible M.L. On board were diplomatic representatives of all the allied countries to the number of 34, the capacity of the craft. The United States representative was Colonel Buckley, military attaché, here.

Those in the party of long residence here stated that looking at Rome from the dirigible brought out features of it which went unperceived to the observer below. Historic Roman landmarks viewed from the air gave the eye an entirely different aspect of their beauty and form. The riches of Rome in hidden gardens could only be appreciated from above, it was agreed.

Looking at the Coliseum from the ground, it appeared to be a circular mass of ruined grandeur. From the air the elliptical proportions of the second greatest accumulation of masonry in history are pronounced.

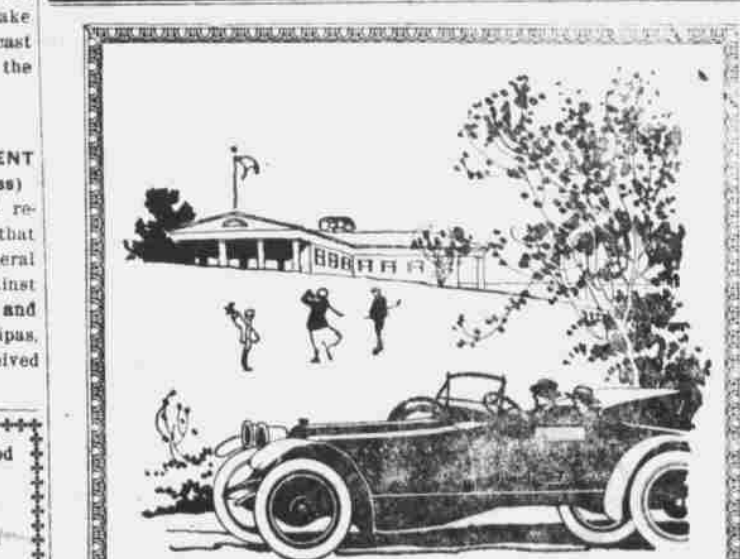

The proceeds from the dirigible service are given to the Italian funds for those disabled in the war. Tea is served in mid-air and letters accepted for postage.

OFFER TO PAY BONUS TO SECURE PASSAGE

(Correspondence Associated Press) TOKIO, June 12.—So difficult is it to obtain passage on any steamer for the United States or Canada that advertisements are beginning to appear in the newspapers offering a premium for cabins or berths already reserved. The overcrowding is due to the fact that a larger number of Japanese are visiting the United States and Europe and that many foreign residents are visiting their homelands.
